

Seven Eight Artists

STEPHEN PRICE

Organist

Biography

STEPHEN "Stef" C. PRICE recently joined the music faculty at the University of Washington (Seattle) as the inaugural Paul B. Fritts Faculty Fellow and Artist-in-Residence and head of organ studies beginning in September 2023. Dr. Price teaches Organ Performance, Church Music, and Keyboard Harmony courses. In addition, he leads ongoing initiatives toward the development and revitalization efforts of the UW program, continuing the legacy of his predecessor, Dr. Carole Terry.

Several initiatives have taken place under his leadership, including reinstating the Annual Walker-Ames Halloween Organ Concert, organizing masterclasses by nationally renowned guest artists, and leading University projects connecting donors to the Organ program and School of Music. Dr. Price also organizes yearly rental agreements with Seattle churches and the School of Music, allowing students to utilize the eclectic range of organs available in the city.

In the formative years of study, he served on the music ministry staff at Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church and as an Organ Scholar at St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral in Buffalo, New York. Subsequently, he attended Western Connecticut State University (Danbury, CT) and concurrently served as Organ Scholar at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on the Green (Norwalk, CT). Following undergraduate studies, he received a Fulbright Scholarship to Toulouse, France, where he studied "Historical and Modern" performance practices of French Organ Music. Upon returning to the States, he enrolled at the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University (Bloomington, IN), receiving the Master of Music and Doctor of Music degrees.

Stephen Price, organist

In addition, he competed and garnered awards in international competitions, including the Franz Schmidt Organ Competition (Austria), the André Marchal Organ Competition (France), and the Canadian International Organ Competition (Montreal).

Following his graduate studies, he accepted a full-time position as Associate Director of Music and Organist at First United Methodist Church, San Diego, California (2015-17). He then received an Assistant Teaching Professorship at Ball State University (Muncie, IN). During his appointment (2018-2023), he taught Organ Performance, Church Music, Music History, and Music Theory courses. In addition, he served as coordinator for the Sursa American Organ Competition, a national event open to high school and pre-professional organists hosted at Ball State.

His professional activity includes presentations on Pedagogy, Organ Literature, and Hymn Playing for Chapters of the American Guild of Organists. As a performer, he has given concerts around the U.S., including the recent premiere of Psalm 23 for Organ, composed by Dr. Eurydice Osterman for the 2024 AGO National Convention in San Francisco. He has participated as a juror for competitions, including the National Organ Playing Competition (Fort Wayne, IN); the Strader Organ Scholarship Competition (University of Cincinnati); and the 2024 Barlow Prize Endowment for Music Competition – Organ (Snowbird, UT).

The 2025-2026 season includes appearances at Loyola University (Chicago, IL), Lewis & Clark College (Portland, OR), Göteborg International Organ Festival (Göteborg, Sweden), St. Alphonsus Catholic Church (Seattle, WA), University of Alaska Fairbanks (Fairbanks, AK), St. Mark's Cathedral (Seattle, WA), and Pacific Lutheran University (Tacoma, WA). Additionally, Michael Barone has featured recordings and live performances on the Pipedreams Broadcast on NPR.

Teachers: Andrew Scanlon, Stephen Roberts, Vince Edwards, Michel Bouvard, Jan Willem Jansen, Bruce Neswick, Wilma Jensen, and Janette Fishell.

Dr. Price's debut album, Paris Impact Organ Suites, was recorded on the Goulding & Wood Organ Op. 45 at Ball State University and released on the Raven recording label. His second album, Sparkling Intensity, was recorded on the Flentrop Organ at St. Mark's Cathedral and will be released soon on the Raven label. Dr. Price served as artistic director of the University of Washington School of Music's Black Composers Project featuring the Organ in February 2025. The project is published on YouTube.

Stephen Price is represented by Seven Eight Artists.

Current as of August 2025.

No alterations may be made to this biography without the permission of Seven Eight Artists.

Press Reviews

"Stephen Price's artistry on the Dobson, Op.54 was absolutely superb and the Lanquetuit Toccata was beyond exciting."

- John Sasse, St. Paul's Lutheran, Columbus, Indiana, Concert Series

"Dr. Stephen Price's performance at the 2019 Regional Convention was inspiring, exciting, brilliant, and he beautifully interpreted each composer that spanned nearly 300 years of repertoire from JS Bach to Herbert Howells."

- Priscilla Wiedl, member of the Buffalo Niagara 2019 AGO Convention Committee

"Known for playing diverse programs that showcase the range of possibilities on an organ"

- Lucid Culture Press